

ANNA ORBACZEWSKA

Anna Orbaczewska, b. 1974, is a painter, drawing artist, designer. Graduate of the Royal Academy of Art in the Hague and the Academy of Fine Arts in Gdańsk. Her works explore the topic of complex relations between family members, as well as women's emotionality and sexuality. Her drawings on paper and plates rely on simple means to powerfully articulate problems related to everyday life, relationships with partners and children, as well as more profound spheres of consciousness.

Major individual exhibitions: 2018 – CAP Kobe Studio Y3, Kobe, Japan; 2015 and 2013 – Gdańsk City Gallery; 2008 – Austrian Cultural Forum in Warsaw; 2006 – CCA Łaźnia, Gdańsk; 2004 – Society For Arts, Chicago; Selected group shows: 2019 – Nuremberg House, Krakow, and Günter Grass Gallery, Gdańsk; National Museum in Gdańsk; lokal_30, Warsaw; Wrocław Drawing Triennial, BWA Wrocław Główny; 2018 – National Museum in Gdańsk, Department of Modern Art in the Palace of Abbots in Oliwa; Gdańsk City Gallery; 2016 – National Museum in Gdańsk, Department of Modern Art in the Palace of Abbots in Oliwa; 2014 – Goa Chitra Museum, Goa; 2013 – CCA Łaźnia, Gdańsk; 2016 – Galerie Zero, Berlin.
